Cranbrook Community Theatre is excited to bring you its first production of the 2022/2023 season, "Misery" by William Goldman, based on the novel by Stephen King. Mr. King disclosed in an interview that the inspiration for the novel came from a nightmare he had while on a red eye flight. He said that in his dream, he woke up on the plane and there was a woman sitting next to him who turned to him and said in a crazed voice. "I'm your number one fan!"

"Misery" follows successful romance novelist Paul Sheldon, who is rescued from a car crash by his "number one fan," Annie Wilkes, and wakes up captive in her secluded home. While Paul is healing, Annie reads his latest book and becomes enraged when she discovers the author has killed off her favorite character, Misery Chastain. Annie forces Paul to write a new Misery novel, and he quickly realizes Annie has no intention of letting him go anywhere. The irate Annie has Paul writing as if his life depends on it... and it does.
