Auditions

Our 2018-2019 season calls for 9 female and 10 male roles. We are looking for ages 14 to 70. No experience is necessary. Just come to the Stage Door Theatre on Tuesday, June 12 at 6pm and give it your best shot.

The First Annual Abbott Awards

Our very own Bud Abbott has allowed his name to be used for the CCT annual awards, celebrating the year's achievements in local community theatre. The gala evening was held at the Key City Theatre on Sunday, May 27, with Trevor Lundy hosting.

The first-ever award was to Bud Abbott for lifetime achievement in our community theatre. This special tribute was sponsored by Golden Life Management. Other favourites were decided by popular vote of the CCT membership.

Chautauqua

All of Cranbrook is getting ready to celebrate Sam Steele Days, from the kick-off breakfast at 8:00 am Thursday June 14, to the close of the Sunday Stage Show at 5:00 pm on Sunday, June 17.

But the highlight for all CCT members and their family and friends will once again be at Chautauqua. Miss Melodie Hull is promising a fun, festive and fruitful but frivolous family fest of entertainment and edification.

It happens at our beloved Studio/Stage Door building from 5:30 pm to 8:30 pm on Friday, June 15.

Chautauqua is a "drop-in" event where you are welcome to come and stay as long as you want. Get up and move around and help yourself to the refreshments provided.

Bring your family; bring your friends; bring that weird person you met last week. Everyone is welcome and it's free, free, free.
